

Kamil A. Jbeily, Ph.D.

| HOME | BIO | PRESS COVERAGE | ACTIVITIES | OUTREACH | SPEECHES & PRESENTATIONS | FEEDBACK | FAMILY |

A Tribute to Michel Halbouty

Dedicated to Michel T. Halbouty, an American Hero,
the son of a Lebanese grocer from Halba, Lebanon, who came to America to see what he could do.
In Beaumont, Texas, Michel was born to enrich the world with his talents, visions, and dreams.

*Michel, You are an icon for humanity and a synonym for "goodness!"
Lebanon, the Land of Gibran Khalil Gibran, and America, the Land of Opportunity are grateful to your contributions to humanity.*

Your eternal friend,

*Kamil A. Jbeily, Ph.D.
The University of Texas at Austin,
April 8, 2004*

The Road of Dreams, Bayno

Lebanon - The Village of Halba

Almond Tree in Halba

Lebanon - The Sea

Lebanon - The Ancient Monuments

Lebanon - Under the Snow

Lebanon - The Cedars and Mountains

Lebanon - The Almond Trees

Lebanon - The Waterfalls

Lebanon - The Modest Fragrant Flowers and Proud Lofty Lumber

Lebanon - The Pine and Olive Trees by the Sea

“The Soul is the Nourishment to the Mind”

Father Michel El-Hayek Kasleek University, Lebanon

*Translated from the Arabic language by Kamil A. Jbeily, and presented on February 29, 2004
to Michel Halbouty,
an icon of integrity,
honesty and sheer goodness.*

*Michel, your friendship,
I will eternally cherish!*

Kamil A. Jbeily, Ph.D.

Executive Director

Texas Regional Collaboratives for Excellence in Science Teaching

Fellow, John Pier Eben Endowment for Education

The University of Texas at Austin

Center for Science and Mathematics Education

1 University Station D 5500

Austin, TX 78712-0377

Email: kjbeily@mail.utexas.edu

Website: <http://ci06.edb.utexas.edu/jbeily>

Phone: 512-471-9400

Fax: 512-471-9244

Technical questions about the web site: E-Mail the webmaster

Last Updated: July 19, 2006